2. (1) When any Magistrate of the first class receives information—

[Cf. Act XVI of 1903, s. 167; Act XX of 1891, s. 204.]

(a) that any house in proximity to any educational institution or to any boarding-house connected with an educational institution is used as a brothel, or is used by disorderly persons of any description, or

(b) that any house is used as aforesaid to the annoyance of respectable inhabitants of the vicinity, or

(c) that any house in the immediate neighbourhood of a cantonment is used as a brothel, he may summon the owner, tenant, manager or occupier of the house to appear before him; and, if satisfied that the house is used as described in clause (a), clause (b) or clause (c), as the case may be, may, by written order, direct such owner, tenant, manager or occupier to discontinue such use:

Provided that action under this sub-section shall be taken only—

- (i) with the sanction or by the order of the District Magistrate; or
- (ii) on the complaint of three or more persons resident in the immediate vicinity of the house to which the complaint refers.

(2) If any person who is directed, by an order made by a Magistrate under sub-section (1), to discontinue the use as aforesaid of any house, fails to obey such direction within a period of five days from the date of the order, the Magistrate may impose on him a fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees for every day after the expiration of that period during which the house is so used.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to empower Magistrates of the first class to direct the discontinuance of the use of houses (1) as brothels, or by disorderly persons, in proximity to any educational institution or to the annoyance of respectable residents, or (2) as brothels, in the immediate neighbourhood of a cantonment. In order to prevent vexatious prosecutions, it is declared that action may be taken only with the sanction or by the order of the District Magistrate, or on the complaint of three or more residents of the neighbourhood. The Act will apply in the first instance to all provincial municipalities; but power is taken to extend it, as occasion may require, to non-municipal areas. The draft follows in the main section 167 of the Central Provinces Municipal Act, 1903 (XVI of 1903), and section 204 of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1891 (XX of 1891).

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat Book Depot; and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.
